The Dutch Referee Corps is a project of Sensei Cor Mol (Sandan International Budokai). A good license system / qualification for beginning and advanced Kyokushin Referee.

Definition of a referee: A referee (referee) in sports is the highest designee, to oversee the application of the rules. The designation shall be made by the organizing body. For this reason, there must exist rules that allows the independent arbiter of the organization, where their duties are inconsistent. Usually, a referee may have assistants as linesmen and fourth officials. In tennis, one distinguishes the chair umpire (chair umpire) of (its subsidiary) linesmen {line umpires}. It is also possible to have more than one equivalent officials, for example, in hockey, where each of the two half-covers the referees field. (Source: WIKIPEDIA) Within Kyokushin in recent years a lot of competitions have been organized, partly because of the fragmentation every organization has not only its local competitions, but also Dutch and European championships. These races should be properly supervised. Most organizations offer their members courses to learn the referee skills.

Because there are many organizations, this corps was founded, the Corps aims:

- 1: Good people, who are already certified within their organizations gather to make good the matches of the various organizations expired
- 2: Differences in the performance of the referee task to reduce to a minimum by means of meetings.
- 3: Organizations that participate allow that to rely on the force.
- 4: Newbie's who have no opportunity to train as a referee would be allowed.
